

Member Update

Errata

Two corrections to the Member Update email which went out yesterday:

- We neglected to mention that the club is hosting a First Tee Charlottesville outing so the course is close for play all day on Mon 11/2.
- There was a broken link sent to RSVP for Chef Frederick's video cooking class. The correct link is here. The menu serves two and is Pan Seared Salmon, Roasted Potatoes and Braised Fennel with a Quick Pickled Cucumber & Pepper Relish and a Dijon Cream Sauce. $29 and we'll provide an ingredient box. RSVP by Wed 11/18, pick up your ingredients at the Clubhouse on Sat 11/21 from 2-5pm, then view the video and prepare the meal at your leisure. Short teaser video here.

Halloween Trick or Treating

Trick or treating outside the clubhouse tonight from 5-6:30pm. There will be decorated, socially distanced candy stations in the parking lot, friendly competitions for best Halloween costume, best decorated vehicle, spookiest family and more, plus a member number bar with beer, wine and a special spiked cider.

A Small Token of our Thanks

While not normally known as a day of thanks we want to show some appreciation for your support during this year of COVID with a Halloween treat. For our team, this year has been head down with a focus on safety and reinventing large parts of the club on the fly. There has been little time for reflection, but as the fairways hint of coming dormancy it brings back memories of when those fairways were coming alive. April and May brought daily changes to laws and guidelines. It was unexpected, and difficult, but we got through thanks to the support of incredible members. Before we dive into winter challenges and holiday planning we wanted to take a moment to share a token of our appreciation.

For the month of November, guest green fees are on us.

For current Full/Golf Members, there will be unlimited guests Tue-Fri throughout November, with guests only paying cart fees.

For current Social/Sports/Fitness Members, it's one guest round Tue-Fri any time in November with your guest paying only cart fees.

Questions? Email Jack. Our sincere thanks for your support throughout 2020...and enjoy!
