NEW - Member Spotlight - Welcome George & Sue Heffner! They've recently bought a home in Glenmore where they plan to retire after George wraps up his medical practice in tiny Orwigsburg, PA. George has had a long and satisfying career as a small town doctor, likes helping people who might otherwise struggle to afford medical care, and feels he has made a small difference in a big world, patient by patient. He's an avid runner, cyclist and sports fan--especially hoops--who lists Tony Bennett as someone he particularly admires. Sue is the family organizer-in-chief, a retired homemaker who enjoys music, reading, travel and spending time with their family. They have three grown daughters and a grand-daughter whom we hope to see visiting them once they're living full time in Glenmore.
